The Program Administrator and the rebate administrator are not responsible for any tax liability which may be imposed as a result of receipt of the Rebates provided by the Program Administrator to the Customer. Customer is encouraged to discuss its tax liabilities with Customer's tax advisor.

7. Indemnification
The Customer shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Program Administrator, its affiliates and their respective contractors, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives from and against any and all claims, damages, losses and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred to enforce this indemnity, arising out of, resulting from, or related to the Program or the performance of any services or other work in connection with the Program (“Damages”), arising directly or indirectly out of or in connection with the installation or related services and material or caused or alleged to be caused in whole or in part by any actual or alleged act or omission of the Customer; any contractor, subcontractor, agent, third party, or anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them or anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable. The provisions of this Section 7 shall survive the termination, cancellation or completion of the Customer's participation in the Program.

8. Limitation of Liability
To the fullest extent allowed by law, the Program Administrator's liability shall be limited to paying approved Rebates in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and the Program Materials. The Program Administrator and its affiliates and their respective contractors, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives shall have absolutely no liability to the Customer or any other party for any other obligation. In no event, whether as a result of breach of contract, tort (including negligence and strict liability), or any other theory of recovery shall the Program Administrator be liable in connection with this Agreement or the Program for any all special, indirect, incidental, penal, punitive or consequential damages of any nature whether or not (i) such damages were reasonably foreseeable or (ii) the Program Administrator was advised or aware that such damages might be incurred. The provisions of this Section 8 shall survive the termination, cancellation or completion of the Customer's participation in the Program.

9. Release
To the fullest extent allowed by law and as part of the consideration for participation in the Program, the Customer waives and releases the Program Administrator and its affiliates from all obligations (other than payment of a Rebate(s)), and for any liability or claim associated with the EEMs, the performance of the EEMs, the Program and associated work or items, or these Terms and Conditions. The provisions of this Section 9 shall survive the termination, cancellation or completion of the Customer's participation in the Program.

10. Rebate Amounts
The Program Administrator shall provide Rebate(s) for approved equipment up to the rebate amount indicated in the Customer's application.

11. Monitoring and Inspection
The Program Administrators or its representatives, reserves the right to perform pre- and post-installation monitoring and inspection of the installed equipment for a three year period following the completion of the installation in order to determine the energy savings. The Customer shall provide access and information to the Program Administrator and reasonably cooperate in good faith with the Program Administrator regarding such activity.

12. Miscellaneous
(a) Paragraph headings are for the convenience of the parties only and are not to be construed as part of these Terms and Conditions.
(b) If any provision of these Terms and Conditions is deemed invalid by any court or administrative body having jurisdiction, such ruling shall not invalidate any other provision, and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.
(c) These Terms and Conditions shall be interpreted and enforced according to the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
(d) In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between these Terms and Conditions and any Program Materials, these Terms and Conditions shall be controlling.
(e) Except as expressly provided herein, there shall be no modification or amendment to these Terms and Conditions or the Program Materials unless such modification or amendment is in writing and signed by a duly authorized officer of the Program Administrator.
(f) The provisions of Sections 3.4, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 11 and any other provision that specifies by its terms that it survives termination, shall survive the termination or expiration of the Customer's participation in the Program.

(g) Counterpart Execution; Scanned Copy. Any and all agreements and documents requiring signature related to the Program may be executed in several counterparts, each of which, when executed, shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A scanned or electronically reproduced copy or image of such agreements and documents bearing the signatures of the parties shall be deemed an original and may be introduced or submitted in any action or proceeding as competent evidence of the execution, terms and existence of such agreements and documents notwithstanding the failure or inability to produce or tender an original, executed counterpart of the same and without the requirement that the unavailability of such original, executed counterpart of the same first be proven.
